

Case Study – Rapid Deployment of a Development Center

Large global retailer was looking to relocate contract consultants in 60 days due to unexpected work space constraints

Client:
Large Global Retailer

Industry:
Retail

Service Provided to Client:
- Enterprise-Wide Staffing

The Challenge: The client needed to relocate its contract consultants off-site within a timeframe of 60 days due to unexpected work space limitations. The client presented this challenge to The Judge Group, who has been a staffing provider and partner of the client, since the relationship began in 1999.

The Solution: As a leading professional services firm, The Judge Group was able to quickly provide a solution to the client and further expand the scope of their partnership.

- Judge opened a Development Center conveniently located within minutes of the client's current technology center and provided all infrastructure setup, office furniture, phones and computers. The state-of-the-art facility offers accommodations for 100 professionals and includes advanced conference and meeting rooms.
- Within the 60 day timeframe, the client's consultants were all relocated to The Judge Group's 12,000 sq. ft. facility.

The Result: By utilizing The Judge Group, the client was able to successfully relocate the consultants within the desired timeframe and with less cost incurred. The Judge Group continues to respond with success to the client's ongoing staffing needs.
